Young Lady Shot While Visiting Mrs. Wood Owen.

One of the most distressing affairs that ever occurred in Mason county, which may have a fatal ending for Miss Mabel Dunn, aged 20, a charming society girl of Noblesville, Ind., took place last Thursday night on the farm of Mr. Best Gault, near Murphysville, when the young lady was shot in the breast with a 38 caliber revolver. Miss Dunn, who was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Wood Owens, was a member of a coon hunting party. The young folks had gone out in automobiles to a point near where the shooting occurred and there met a colored guide with dogs, who started them through the farm of Mr. Gault. They had not gone very far when a shot was fired from the Gault home. The men in the crowd yelled to the shooter not to fire again as there were ladies in the party, whereupon a second shot followed which struck Miss Dunn in the breast, inflicting a serious wound, the extent of which is not known. Physicians were summoned from Maysville and Miss Dunn lay on the ground for more than two hours before being taken to the hospital.

Mr. Gault was arrested and placed in the custody of Deputy Sheriff Mike Brown, pending the result of the injuries to Miss Dunn. He is 41 years of age and is a prominent farmer of Mason county.

In giving his version of the affair he says he mistook the party for a marauding Hallowe'en party, who were after his wagons and available things on the farm, and that he fired to scare them.

Mrs. Owen, who was entertaining the unfortunate young lady, was formerly Miss Gladys Wilson, of this city.

Bascom's Shorthorn Sale.

Auctioneer Boyd reports the shorthorn sale of cattle, closing out the Slate Valley herd of the late A. W. Bascom, as follows: Five bulls, $31, $36, $42, $51, $55 each; 19 cows, at from $30 to $122.50 per head; 17 calves, at from $26 to $95 per head; 2 cows and calf at side, $30 and $70 respectively. There was a large crowd present and the bidding was fair. One thing noticeable was the lack of interest displayed by shorthorn men, none of whom were present with few exceptions, showing that the once formidable business is rapidly dying out in this section.

HENRY WATSON

Indicted For Serious Crime---Denies His Guilt.

The Trouble Grew Out of Land Deal in Jefferson County.

An indictment charging larceny and embezzlement in the sum of $2,695.36 was returned by the grand jury several days ago against Henry Watson, a well known lawyer and real estate broker of Mt. Sterling, the facts of which did not become public until recently when Watson waived arraignment before Judge James P. Gregory in the Criminal Court, pleaded not guilty to the indictment, and arranged for bail of $300. According to the information given out by James P. Edwards, one of the attorneys in the case, Watson came to Louisville several weeks ago to close a deal for the purchase of a farm in Jefferson county for Mrs. Bettie Knox, of Mt. Sterling, and the indictment grew out of alleged illegal methods pursued by Watson in negotiating the deal.

It is charged that he purchased a tract of land from George Schuster for $13,500, and that in completing the arrangements with Mrs. Knox he claimed that the purchase price of the property was $15,000. It is further charged that Watson claimed that he had to use the sum of $600 to bind the sale and that further he was forced to pay the sum of $559.36 as interest on notes outstanding against the owner of the property before he could get possession, both of which sums, it is alleged, were paid to him by Mrs. Knox.

After securing a title to the property Mrs. Knox came to Louisville and took possession of the farm, and a short time later, it is charged, she discovered irregular proceedings on the part of Watson. She consulted Attorney Edwards, and the latter drew an indictment and presented the facts to the grand jury with the result that Watson was indicted. Watson is well known in Mt. Sterling and other sections of Eastern Kentucky where he has practiced his profession for years.

The case was set for trial on December 10.—Louisville Times.

We desire to do Mr. Watson no injustice and gladly publish his statement of the facts in the case, as he claims them to be, taken from the Sentinel-Democrat:

"There is not a word of truth in the article that appeared in the Louisville Post and other papers Thursday afternoon. It is true that I traded $16,485.64 worth of notes belonging to Mrs. Knox to Mr. Schuster for a farm of about 120 acres in Jefferson county, paying $13,600 therefor, and that Mr. Schuster paid me the difference between the notes and the price of the farm, which was $2,885.64, and I paid Mrs. Knox every cent of this money and every cent that was coming to her and have her receipt for same, and am at a loss to know why she should have preferred charges against me."

James Wells, aged about 60 years, died early Thursday morning, October 31, with a complication of diseases. He had been ill since August. Deceased was born near White Sulphur, Bath county, and was the son of the late Richard Wells. Jim was a hard working, industrious man, paying strict attention to his own affairs. On Wednesday morning, October 30, he professed his faith in Christ and was baptized by Rev. W. A. Hopkins, and was received into the Presbyterian Church. Twenty-three hours later death relieved him from his suffering. The funeral took place Friday, November 1, services being conducted by Rev. W. A. Hopkins. To the brothers and sisters who are left to mourn, this community extends sympathy.

Ford's Profits $7,000,000.

To the Ford Motor Car Company, Detroit, Mich., belongs the credit of having made the largest 1912 net profits of any automobile concern in the country. Its production for the season to June 30 was at least 70,000 and probably nearer 75,000 cars which were sold at a net profit of slightly less than $100 per car, making the total profits amount to about $7,000,000.—The Automobile.
